VS VENOUS
SYMPOSIUM EUROPE

2025

Welcome Address

Dear Colleagues,

Building upon the success of our inaugural event in October 2024, we are delighted to welcome you on the 2nd Venous Symposium Europe, scheduled for October 30th - November 1st, 2025, in Athens, Greece.

With the second symposium we continue our mission bringing the excellence of the Venous Symposium New York to Europe, focusing on advancing the field of venous and lymphatic diseases through practical and interactive sessions led by world-renowned experts.

Athens, the birthplace of Philosophy, Science, Democracy, and European Culture and Civilization is the ideal location to discuss and share knowledge.

Whatever your area of expertise in venous diseases, this international and interactive meeting bringing together venous world experts, will provide you with a learning and networking opportunity where you can exchange ideas, improve access to the latest technological developments, and deliver better care by offering practical education and providing updates in clinical practice and new technologies.

Join us for a groundbreaking Venous Symposium meeting in Athens and enjoy the experience of a city with a unique blend of history, art, culture, lifestyle, and entertainment.
